WIRE TRUST PLACED ON GRILL IN NEW YORK

Nine Indictments Against Associations and Individuals of "Wire Trust" Series of Poets to Maintain Prices and Appoint Trustees for Business.

New York, July 4.—Nine indictments charging restraint of trade in violation of the Sherman Anti-Trust law were returned by a Federal Grand Jury here this afternoon against as many associations and a long list of individuals comprising the so-called "wire trust," affiliated with the steel industry. Prominent among the defendants are Herbert L. Slater, a son-in-law of J. P. Morgan, and Wm. P. Palmer, president of the American Steel and Wire Company, a subsidiary of the United Steel Corporation, and Frank J. Gould, the well-known railroad financier.

"What this suit charges," said District Attorney Wain, "is a trade agreement in restraint of trade." The Government does not seek to establish physical or financial control of the properties or interests indicated, but a series of pools to maintain prices and apportion territory, in elimination of competition, and so in violation of the Sherman Act.

There is no indication, however, that evidence gathered by the Bureau of Corporations in its investigation of the Steel Corporation played any part in the indictments. Only two of the indicted associations contain subsidiary companies of the great corporations, namely, the American Steel and Wire Company, and the Trenton Iron Co. The most prominent individual defendants and a full list of the associations in which they are members are as follows:

Frank J. Gould, president of the Old Dominion Iron and Nail Works, Belle Isle, Richmond, Va.
Herbert L. Slater, president of the Halloway Wire Company, Yonkers, New York.

Wm. P. Palmer, president of the American Steel & Wire Co., Waukegan, Ill., and Worcester, Mass.
Charles F. Brooks, vice-president of the American Brass and Copper Company, Ann Arbor, Mich.

Harry O. Woodford, president of the Trenton Iron Company, Trenton, N.J.
Isakine Hewitt, vice-president of the Trenton Iron Company.

Frank A. Phillips, president of the American Electrical Works, Philadelphia, Pa.
Ferdinand W. Roebeling, president of John A. Roebeling Steel Company, Trenton and Roebeling, N.J.

Phillip H. W. Smith, second vice-president of the Standard Ground Cable Company, Pittsburgh, Pa., Oakland, Cal., and Poughkeepsie, N.Y.

The Home Rope Manufacturers' Association—Wm. P. Palmer and others.
The Tare Wire Company Association—Wm. P. Palmer and others.
The Lead and Alloy Wire Cable Association—Wm. P. Palmer and others.

The Wire Rope Manufacturers' Association—Edwin E. Jackson, Jr., and others.
The Fine Magnet Wire Association—Ferdinand W. Roebeling and others.
The Underground Power Cable Association—Phillip H. W. Smith and others.

The Telephone Cable Association—Frank A. Phillips and others.
The Rubber Covered Wire Association—Wm. P. Palmer and others.
The general charges in all of the indictments are the same, alleging that the defendants conspired to which the defendants were engaged. Thus one indictment reads:

"Because said corporations, at all such times, have been and in fact now are, separate and distinct from each other, their said interstate business, should have been conducted by each strictly on a competitive basis, and would be so conducted but for the said conspiracy, as hereinafter mentioned."

It is not forth that the various associations described organized under their association names and each elected what was called a supervisor and adopted sets of rules and regulations. An arbitrary rule was determined, it was charged, by the ratio of output for an agreed time; each member was obliged to pay $5,000 or less into a fund called "the general deposit," and in case any member failed to abide by the regulations, his deposit was forfeited.

Raw materials were bought, it is alleged, in one indictment, at "arbitrary and on competitive prices to be agreed upon by said defendants, being prices lower than those for which the respective corporations would be enabled to purchase said raw materials but for the unlawful conspiracy herein described."

In the indictment against the American Steel and Wire Association, it is charged that the corporations formed the association produced 95 per cent. of the entire output of the Bare Copper wire consumed in the United States, and that they had absolute control.

THE HUDSON'S BAY CO. invites you to a Special Exhibition of a Gorgeous Replica of the Coronation Robe as worn by Queen Mary on June 22nd last.

This wonderful gown which we exhibit Friday and Saturday was made specially for the Hudson's Bay Company in London, England, and is an exact reproduction of the magnificent robe worn by Her Gracious Majesty at the Coronation ceremony on June 22nd. The last feature of seeing the Queen attired in the original Coronation robe was a privilege enjoyed by a very small portion of the British Empire's subjects, considering the number attended. It was this thought that inspired the Hudson's Bay Company to have its prestige and have this majestic robe reproduced in that its patrons throughout western Canada could enjoy viewing its richness and lavish beauty in the same manner as if they had been at the ceremony itself, and seen the original. We desire it below.

The gown proper is a genuine robe of crimson velvet, close fitting, black-necked, with a train of medium length. The upper front, from neck to feet, is a series of white lace flounces, each about ten inches deep. The crimson velvet opens over this flounce like a coat, the fronts descending outside, edged with ermine. The sleeves are made with three velvet puff separated one from another by narrow bands of ermine. Below the first band of ermine is a velvet point, beneath which a full of white lace falls over the arm and hand. Around the throat is a full of plume mousseline, which stands out all around like a small edition of an English ruff.

This is the gown simple, sans court train. The court train is fastened to the shoulders under a deep cape of ermine and falls in very graceful folds, widening as it lengthens. It is fifteen feet long. It is edged with ermine and embroidered at intervals with royal crowns in gold. The train is lined with white satin.

Friday and Saturday between 2-30 and 3-30 this gown will be exhibited on a turning model in our garment department second floor.

and other farm products to supply the local demand. This is a good sign. The decrease in the price of farming has been due to the fact that the supply at home there was nothing to show that there was any surplus. What with the tariff and the freight rates that was the only thing the farmer could do was to sell his produce where there was local demand for. And as the growth of the local demand did not exactly follow the farmer, the farmer came to the conclusion that the tariff and the freight rates were the only thing he could do something for even after paying the tariff and the freight rates. The tariff and the freight rates are taking the place of the situation may be taking their co-operation in relieving it.

The newly nominated Conservative candidate in Yarmouth named his advisers, including his leader, that he agreed with every plank in the platform of the Borden party. The announcement was no doubt gratifying to Mr. Borden, none the less so that such announcements are rare in this western country in this day and generation. There is room to think, however, that the announcement was the price of nomination. Mr. Borden, it was in fact, and the local true-blue no doubt saw it that they knew before hand what the prospective candidate was going to fight for reciprocity or against it. It is not safe to take chances in such a matter. Mr. Borden, it was in fact, and his followers, and the course of Mr. John Heron, M.P.

Three years ago Mr. H. B. Ames, M.P., made a trip through the west with a mission. His mission was to promote the cause of reciprocity, with the object of convincing the public that Honorable Clifford Birtan was a risk and a person to have even had in the administration of the Interior. At present, the mission of Mr. Ames is to take part in public affairs seems, in Mr. Ames' opinion, to depend on how little he is to be.

Lord Lansdowne thinks it would be premature if the country could be given the dominance of a majority of the House of Commons, which might at first seem to be a disadvantage to the people. Hardly so dangerous as we have it under the dominance of the House of Lords, which always and necessarily represents a minority of the people.

The Toronto Star wonders why the Post Laureate did not write a sensational piece. Perhaps his Majesty has been reading some of the things Mr. Austin published about his late lamented grand-mother, and hinted to the Laureate that there are times when silence is not only golden but absolutely indispensable.

The immigration last year was the largest in the history of the country. For statistical purposes, four-fifths of it came from the Old Lands and the United States. Colonel Stanley, M.P., will now be heard from.

Only three towns burned and thirteen deaths through violence were reported on the evening of July 4th. It would really be cheap in blood and money to have the revenue from the celebration to keep up these devastating celebrations of it.

The Journal apologizes for pointing out that a faction of local Liberals are willing to kill the party if they can kill Hon. Frank Oliver. No apology is needed; it is the simple truth, announced from headquarters through the Journal.

The Journal claims to have found a farmer who does not approve of reciprocity. Naturally it gave him a front page story with a three-column headline. Such courtesies are rare.

The political whereabouts of Mr. A. S. McCarthy, M.P., have not yet been learned.

OBSERVATIONS.

For the Press: The coronation is the danger of high water. The press, the bare skin is going out of fashion. Remains the strike and the prospects of a strike of this vintage.

Magrath Pioneer: It would be a good point on the part of Mr. Borden to remove the man Porter, and substitute a Canadian school boy in his place. His monumental pride and logically and feebly presented, carries no weight.

Lethbridge Herald: The building fund for the past month is very satisfactory, and it looks as though the city were going to strike and a fair amount of strike at once. A lot of people intend to build as soon as they are fired up. There rains and the splendid crop prospects should be sufficient as a nerve tonic.

Lethbridge Herald: Ontario farmers sell their home for six cents a pound and the rest of the world for twenty-four cents a pound, and the records of the most packers show that they have done very well in the past. What with the tariff and the freight rates that was the only thing the farmer could do was to sell his produce where there was local demand for. And as the growth of the local demand did not exactly follow the farmer, the farmer came to the conclusion that the tariff and the freight rates were the only thing he could do something for even after paying the tariff and the freight rates. The tariff and the freight rates are taking the place of the situation may be taking their co-operation in relieving it.

Toronto Globe: The News—"The Globe" at Brandon M. Jordan's difficulties began with a large delegation of Manitoba grain growers for whom Mr. J. W. Scallion, an agent of a Conservative in Mr. Jordan's office, acted as spokesman. The News' information is that Mr. Scallion has called himself an independent, but that he never cast a Conservative vote in his life. Chicago Grain Markets.
Chicago, July 5. — There was a quiet market today in corn and wheat. Heat and drought sent prices above any level previously reached this season.
For the most part the rise of prices at market resulted from sympathy with the big advance of corn and wheat. An important factor however was the idea that North Dakota had longer had a rainy outlook. There were a few smaller crop developments in Prussia, southwest Russia and Siberia.

Consuming Too Much. "By all possible reckoning," said Commissioner Bouillon, "a city with the population of Edmonton should not consume more than 2,700,000 gallons of water per day. We are consuming more than that amount and there must be waste. Anyway, we must bring the consumption within the capacity of the filtration plant, even though we have to restrict the sprinkling of lawns. The city administration has not seen fit to back up in it for a recommendation regarding the adoption of the meter system and we shall have to do the best we can by a system of inspection," he said. "We certainly have the meter system," remarked Superintendent McLean.

Commissioner Bouillon moved for the appointment of the permanent committee, to be composed of himself and the superintendents.

"Any seceder?" asked Commissioner Bouillon.

Mr. Bouillon, the president in the absence of Mayor Hildreth, who is in Calgary. A period of silence followed, when Commissioner Candy said that he did not see the use of this motion.

Kear, who had said nothing previous-you can do anything. I second your motion." The motion was carried, and the committee will proceed with
